

SCJ Rounds out 2021 by Hiring Three New Team Members

LACEY, WASH., January 10, 2022 – SCJ Alliance has added three new employees to the team: a senior design engineer and two marketing coordinators.

Pete Swan

Senior Designer Peter Swan is working with the civil design group. With a degree in Computer-Aided Design (CAD), Pete brings 18 years of CAD experience and 10 years in civil engineering.

Morgan Evans and Avery Ward were both hired as marketing coordinators, bringing much needed resources to the SCJ team. Evans and Ward both hail from the finance industry.

All three work out of the Lacey office.

A 100% employee-owned firm, SCJ has over 130 employees and specializes in civil engineering, transportation planning and design, environmental and urban planning, landscape architecture, cable-propelled transit, construction management, and public outreach.

SCJ has earned many awards for project work and being a great place to work. In addition to the Lacey office, the firm has 10 other offices across Washington, Montana, and Colorado.
