

Bill Dunning Joins SCJ Alliance as Lacey Office Principal

July 8, 2022 – SCJ Alliance welcomes Bill Dunning as the firm’s Lacey Office Principal. A civil engineer by training, Bill has over 30 years of experience in the engineering field.

“As the Lacey Principal, Bill will oversee project delivery and overall management of the office which has 63 employees,” shared SCJ President/CEO Jean Carr. “Bill will be partnering with the transportation, planning, civil, landscape architecture, and construction management group leaders to get this accomplished.”

Carr added, “We appreciate Bill’s emphasis on consensus-building, team building, and value engineering, and how important each of those aspects are to making projects successful. He is a great fit for our employee-owned firm.”

Bill’s project experience includes managing commercial, institutional, industrial, waterfront, retail, and residential projects. He is particularly skilled in leading complex projects and facilitating project permitting. Regional projects of note that Bill has worked on include Seattle’s Elliott Bay Marina, Tacoma’s Portland Avenue and Titlow Parks, Shelton High School’s Campus Remodel, and affordable and midrise housing in Mason, Thurston, Peirce, and King counties.

SCJ has over 130 employees and specializes in civil engineering, transportation planning and design, construction management, environmental and urban planning, landscape architecture, and public outreach. A 100% employee-owned firm, SCJ has earned many awards for project work and being a great place to work. The firm has 10 offices across Washington, Montana, and Colorado.
